

TRACE CHEMOTHERAPY WASTE
SOME STATES REQUIRE THERMAL DESTRUCTION

Photo
Description	TRACE CHEMOTHERAPY WASTE LESS THAN 3% (<3%) OF THE CONTAINER VOLUME - NO VISIBLE AMOUNT Contaminated items with a trace amount of chemotherapy waste (i.e., NOT SATURATED) after administering chemotherapy drugs
Typical Items That May Go In This Waste Bin	PPE WITH TRACE CHEMO CONTAMINANTS <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Booties-Gloves-Gowns-Masks DISPOSABLE EQUIPMENT WITH TRACE CONTAMINANTS <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Gauze-Blu Chox Pads-Diapers-Empty Foley Bags-Nonflushable Wipes SHARPS WITH TRACE CHEMO <ul style="list-style-type: none">-Needles-Syringes/Needles-Broken Glass-Ampules NOTE: All saturated chemo items should go in black bins
What Should NOT Go In This Bin	NO CONTROLLED SUBSTANCES NO BULK CHEMO (more than 3% container volume) Trace chemo contaminated items can go in a black bin if there are no yellow containers. Trade chemo needles must be placed in a rigid sharps box before being placed in a larger yellow or black in.